 - (a) "Delivered by electronic means" includes:
 - (i) Delivery to an electronic mail address at which a party has consented to receive notices or documents; or
 - (ii) Posting on an electronic network or site accessible via the internet, mobile application, computer, mobile device, tablet or any other electronic device, together with separate notice to a party directed to the electronic mail address at which the party has consented to receive notice of the posting;

- (2) Pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, any notice to a party or any other document required under applicable law in an insurance transaction or that is to serve as evidence of insurance coverage may be delivered, stored and presented by electronic means so long as it meets the requirements of the uniform electronic transactions act, chapter 50, title 28, Idaho Code.
- (3) Delivery of a notice or document in accordance with this section shall be considered equivalent to any delivery method required under applicable law, including: delivery by first class mail; first class mail, postage prepaid; certified mail; certificate of mail; or certificate of mailing.
- (4) A notice or document may be delivered by electronic means by an insurer to a party under this section if the party has affirmatively consented to that method of delivery and has not withdrawn the consent.

In the absence of verification or acknowledgment of receipt, the insurer shall mail a paper copy of the notice or document within three (3) days via United States mail.
- (7) The legal effectiveness, validity or enforceability of any contract or policy of insurance executed by a party may not be denied solely because of the failure to obtain electronic consent or confirmation of consent of the party.

 - (b) A withdrawal of consent by a party is effective within a reasonable period of time after receipt of the withdrawal by the insurer.
- (9) The provisions of this section do not apply to a notice or document delivered by an insurer in an electronic form before the effective date of this act to a party who, before that date, has consented to receive notice or document in an electronic form otherwise allowed by law.
