- Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:
- SECTION 1. That Section 54-4107, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:
- 54-4107. DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS. (1) The board may refuse to issue, refuse to renew or may suspend, revoke or otherwise sanction any license or certificate issued under this chapter for any of the following:
 - (a) Procuring licensure or certification pursuant to this chapter by knowingly making a false statement, submitting false information, refusing to provide complete information in response to a question in an application for licensure or certification or through any form of fraud or misrepresentation;
 - (b) Being convicted of a felony;
 - (c) Making any substantial misrepresentation, false promises or false or fraudulent representation;
 - (d) Violating the provisions of this chapter or any rules of the board;
 - (e) Being negligent or incompetent, as defined in the uniform standards of professional appraisal practices, in developing an appraisal, in preparing an appraisal report or in communicating an appraisal;
 - (f) Accepting an appraisal assignment when the employment is contingent upon the licensed or certified appraiser reporting a predetermined estimate, analysis or opinion, or where the fee to be paid is contingent upon the opinion, conclusion, or valuation reached, or upon the consequences resulting from the appraisal assignment;
 - (g) Violating the confidential nature of governmental records to which he gained access through employment as a licensed or certified appraiser by a governmental agency;
 - (h) Entering into an agreement to perform specialized services for a contingent fee, and failing to clearly state this fact in each written and oral report;
 - (i) Failing as a state-licensed or certified real estate appraiser to actively and personally supervise any person not licensed or certified under the provisions of this chapter, who assists said state licensed or certified appraiser in performing real estate appraisals;

- (j) Having had a license or certificate to practice revoked, suspended or otherwise sanctioned by any other state; or
- (k) Failing to comply with a board order entered in a disciplinary matter.
- (2) The board, or its duly appointed hearing officer, shall have the power in any disciplinary proceeding under this chapter, to administer oaths, take depositions of witnesses within or without the state in the manner provided by law in civil cases, and may apply to any district court of this state for a subpoena to require the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such books, records and papers as it deems necessary. The fees and mileage of the witnesses shall be the same as that allowed in the district courts in civil cases, which fees and mileage shall be paid in the same manner as other expenses of the board are paid. In any case of disobedience to, or neglect of, any subpoena or subpoena duces tecum served upon any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter regarding which he may lawfully be interrogated, it shall be the duty of any district court in this state on application by the board to compel compliance with the subpoena by proceedings for contempt, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from such court or for refusal to testify therein. The state-licensed or certified person accused in such proceedings shall have the same right of subpoena.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all proceedings under this chapter shall be in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 52, title 67, Idaho Code.
- SECTION 2. That Section 54-4113, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:
- 54-4113. FEES -- ISSUANCE OF LICENSES OR CERTIFICATES. (1) Every person applying for examination or reexamination under this chapter shall pay a fee equal to that charged by the national examining entity. If the result of the examination of any applicant shall be satisfactory to the board, under its rules, it shall issue to such applicant a license or certificate setting forth the fact that he is a state-licensed or certified real estate appraiser and authorized to practice his profession in this state. The fee for obtaining a license or certificate under the provisions of this chapter shall be an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500). The annual fee for renewal or reinstatement of a license or certificate shall be an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), which shall be paid to the bureau. The board shall adopt all fees by rule.
- (2) In addition to those fees described in this chapter, the board may collect from applicants for licensure or certification and holders of state licenses or certificates of appraisal and remit to the appropriate agency or instrumentality of the federal government any additional fees as may be required to render Idaho state—licensed residential, certified residential and general real estate appraisers eligible to perform appraisals in connection with federally related transactions.
- (3) In addition to those fees described in this chapter, the board may collect from an applicant for appraisal management company registration and from a registered appraisal management company and remit to the appropriate agency or instrumentality of the federal government any additional fees required to provide appraisal management services in connection with federally related transactions.

- (4) The board may collect continuing education provider application fees in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) as established by board rule.
- (5) All fees received by the board under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the occupational licenses account in the dedicated fund, and all costs and expenses incurred by the board under the provisions of this chapter shall be a charge against and paid from the account for such purposes. The fees collected under this chapter shall be immediately available for the administration of this chapter, the provisions of any other law notwithstanding.
- SECTION 3. That Section 54-4126, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:
- 54-4126. OWNERSHIP REQUIREMENTS -- CONTROLLING PERSONS. (1) No AMC shall be registered in this state if the AMC is owned in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by any person who has had an appraiser license or certificate refused, denied, canceled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked in any state for substantive cause, as determined by the appropriate state appraiser certifying and licensing agency. An AMC is not barred from registration in this state if the license or certificate of the appraiser with an ownership interest was not revoked for a substantive cause and has been reinstated by the state or states in which the appraiser was licensed or certified.
- (2) No AMC shall be registered in this state if any natural person that owns more than ten percent (10%) of the appraisal management company:
 - (a) Is determined by the board not to have good moral character to not be in compliance with all minimum federal requirements; or
 - (b) Fails to submit to a background investigation, including a finger-print-based criminal history check, carried out by the board.
- (3) Each appraisal management company applying to the board for a registration in this state shall designate one (1) controlling person that will be the main contact for all communication between the board and the appraisal management company, and notify the board of any change in the appraisal management company's controlling person. The controlling person designated pursuant to this subsection shall:
 - (a) Have never had a license or certificate to act as an appraiser refused, denied, canceled, revoked or surrendered in lieu of revocation for a substantive reason in any state, unless the person has subsequently had the license or certificate to act as an appraiser granted or reinstated;
 - (b) Be of good moral character in compliance with all minimum federal requirements, as determined by the board; and
 - (c) Submit to a background investigation, including a finger-print-based criminal history check, carried out by the board.
