6	STOCKWATER RIGHTS AND TO PROVIDE A PROCEDURE; AMENDING SECTION 42-503,
7	IDAHO CODE, TO CLARIFY THAT IF AN AGENCY OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AC-

10	BY THE STATE AND TO REDESIGNATE THE SECTION; AMENDING SECTION 42-504,
11	IDAHO CODE, TO REDESIGNATE THE SECTION; AMENDING SECTION 42-505, IDAHO
12	CODE, TO REDESIGNATE THE SECTION; AND AMENDING SECTION 42-506, IDAHO
13	CODE, TO REDESIGNATE THE SECTION.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

15 SECTION 1. That Section 42-501, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby 16 amended to read as follows:

42-501. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. In the landmark case of Joyce Livestock Company v. United States of America, 144 Idaho 1, 156 P.3d 502 (2007), the Idaho Supreme Court held that an agency of the federal government cannot obtain a stockwater right under Idaho law, unless it actually owns livestock and puts the water to beneficial use.

In Joyce, the court held that the United States:

"bases its claim upon the constitutional method of appropriation. That method requires that the appropriator actually apply the water to a beneficial use. Since the United States has not done so, the district court did not err in denying its claimed water rights."

The court also held that federal ownership or management of the land alone does not qualify it for stockwater rights. It opined:

"The United States claimed instream water rights for stock watering based upon its ownership and control of the public lands coupled with the Bureau of Land Management's comprehensive management of public lands under the Taylor Grazing Act...The argument of the United States reflects a misunderstanding of water law...As the United States has held, Congress has severed the ownership of federal lands from the ownership of water rights in nonnavigable waters located on such lands."

The court went on to state:

"Under Idaho Law, a landowner does not own a water right obtained by an appropriator using the land with the landowner's permission unless the appropriator was acting as agent of the owner in obtaining that water right...If the water right was initiated by the lessee, the right is the lessee's property, unless the lessee was acting as the agent of the owner...The Taylor Grazing Act expressly recognizes that ranchers could obtain their own water rights on federal land."

A rancher is not unwittingly acting as an agent of a federal agency simply by grazing livestock on federally managed lands when he files for and receives a stockwater right.

 It is the intent of the Legislature to codify and enhance these important points of law from the Joyce case to protect Idaho stockwater right holders from encroachment by the federal government in navigable and nonnavigable waters.

Further, in order to comply with the Joyce decision, it is the intent of the Legislature that stockwater rights acquired in a manner contrary to the Joyce decision are subject to forfeiture.

SECTION 2. That Chapter 5, Title 42, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby amended by the addition thereto of a  $\underline{\text{NEW SECTION}}$ , to be known and designated as Section 42-503, Idaho Code, and to read as follows:

42-503. FORFEITURE OF CERTAIN STOCKWATER RIGHTS. (1) Within ninety (90) days following the enactment of this section, the director of the department of water resources shall:

- (a) Compile a list of all stockwater rights held by any federal agency; and
- (b) Submit the list of stockwater rights to the appropriate federal agency.
- (2) Following the ninety (90) day period as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the director shall, upon approval by the governor, submit an order to the federal agency identifying the stockwater right or rights held by that federal agency and requiring the federal agency to show cause before the director why the stockwater right or rights should not be lost or forfeited pursuant to section 42-222(2), Idaho Code.
- (3) Any order to show cause shall contain the factual and legal basis for the order.
- (4) The director shall serve a copy of any order to show cause on the stockwater right owner by personal service or by certified mail. Personal service may be completed by department personnel or a person authorized to serve process under the Idaho rules of civil procedure. Service by publication shall be complete upon the date of the last publication.
- (5) The stockwater right owner shall have a right to an administrative hearing before the director if requested in writing within twenty-one (21) days from completion of service of the order to show cause. The water right is forfeited if the water right owner fails to timely request a hearing.

suant to section 42-222(2), Idaho Code, the director shall issue an order declaring the stockwater right forfeited. Judicial review of any decision of the director shall be in accordance with section 42-1701A, Idaho Code.
