- (c) The legal doctrine of Posse Comitatus under 18 U.S.C. Section 1385, by authorizing the armed forces of the United States to police the United States; and
- (d) The following provisions of the United States Constitution:
  - (i) Clause 2, Section 9, Article I, (ensuring the right to seek writ of habeas corpus);
  - (ii) The First Amendment (ensuring the right to petition the federal government for the redress of grievances);
  - (iii) The Fourth Amendment (ensuring the right to be free from unreasonable search and seizure);
  - (iv) The Fifth Amendment (requiring capital or infamous crimes to be brought before a grand jury before charging the defendant and prohibiting deprivation of life, liberty, or property without due process of law);
  - (v) The Sixth Amendment (ensuring the right to a speedy trial by an impartial jury in the state or district where the offense was alleged to have been committed, the right to be informed of the nature and cause of accusations and charges levied, the right to retain legal counsel, and the right to confront witnesses);
