Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

SECTION 1. That Section 33-201, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

SCHOOL AGE. The services of the public schools of this state are extended to any acceptable person of school age. "School age" is defined as including all persons resident of the state, between the ages of five (5) and twenty-one (21) years. For the purposes of this section, the age of five (5) years shall be attained when the fifth anniversary of birth occurs on or before the first day of September of the school year in which the child is to enroll in kindergarten, except that a child who has highly advanced abilities, as determined by the local school district where scores are three (3) standard deviations above the mean, may start at a younger age. For a child enrolling in the first grade, the age of six (6) years must be reached on or before the first day of September of the school year in which the child is to enroll, except that a child who has highly advanced abilities, as determined by the local school district where scores are three (3) standard deviations above the mean, may start at a younger age. This provision to allow early entrance for high-ability learners shall begin as a statewide pilot program beginning in September 2017. After two (2) years, a report shall be given to the legislature on the number of students granted early entrance with success rates. Any child of the age of five (5) years who has completed a private or public out-of-state kindergarten for the required four hundred fifty (450) hours but has not reached the "school age" requirement in Idaho shall be allowed to enter the first grade.

For resident children with disabilities who qualify for special education and related services under the federal individuals with disabilities education act (IDEA) and subsequent amendments thereto, and applicable state and federal regulations, "school age" shall begin at the attainment of age three (3) years and shall continue through the semester of school in which the student attains the age of twenty-one (21) years.

SECTION 2. The provisions of Section 1 of this act shall be null, void and of no force and effect on and after September 1, 2022.
